Man Is Killed As Car Plunges Into SP Freight Train

Wheel Lock Is Blamed By Driver as Companion Is Killed

One man was killed and a second seriously injured on Friday morning shortly after midnight when the car driven by Joe Ivan Grose, 33, Del Paso Heights, got out of control on the road near Mystic, 18 miles east of here, and plunged down a steep bank, landing on the Southern Pacific tracks where an eastbound freight demolished it.

Floyd E. Ingrim, 48, Del Paso Heights, suffered fatal injuries when he was pinned in the car which was carried for 1200 feet by the train. Grose was thrown clear of the tracks and suffered serious injuries.

The two men, on a deer hunting trip, were returning from Reno when Grose contended the front wheels locked on his car. He was cited by State Patrolmen William Gautsche and H. B. Fowler for driving without due caution. There were no indications of skid marks on the road and the car travelled a distance of 28 feet before leaving the bank.

Engineer L. H. Platt of Roseville said as his engine rounded the curve, he saw the wrecked car but could not stop in time to avoid hitting it.

Deputy Coroner N. F. Dolley went to the scene and returned both men to Truckee, Ingrim expiring en route. Grose was removed to a Sacramento hospital and will recover.

The accident occurred near where Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collier were fatally injured last summer. A bullet wound in Ingrim's left leg was described by officers as being the result of one of the two guns being discharged in the accident.

SEARCH CONTINUES FOR TREE CUTTER LOST IN MOUNTAINS

Search was being intensified today for Sidney Warner, 40, tree cutter, who has been missing from Soda Springs since Tuesday morning. He was last seen in the vicinity of Devil's Peak where he had been employed with nine other cutters working for Paul Norboe.

At 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Warner was missed and a search by fellow workers failed to reveal any trace of him. When he failed to return to his quarters at Soda Springs that night, a searching party was organized under the direction of Norboe and the region was scoured without avail. Fires were built to guide the lost man but when morning dawned he was still missing.

Wednesday Game Warden Bill LaMarr headed another searching party and the entire region including all possible places of shelter was thoroughly searched. LaMarr expressed the fear that Warner, who was not a mountain man, may have lost his head and wandered frantically in the wrong direction.

The lost man had evidently resided at Colusa, but came to Soda Springs from a Sacramento employment agency. His original home, according to personal effects at his room, was in the east.

The general election is only ten days distant. It is the duty and privilege of every registered voter to go to the polls and cast his ballot. Take advantage of this rare privilege. These are critical times and unless you, as a good citizen, go to the polls and express your desire for this or that candidate or proposition, you should certainly not voice any opinion later. Our secret ballot system makes it possible for the majority of the people to rule and dictate the policies of our government. Your vote is vastly important. Go to the polls November 5th and VOTE.

Recent action of the Nevada County parole board in discharging a prisoner from the county jail after he had served only a small part of his sentence from the justice court at Truckee earned the criticism which resulted. We firmly believe in the parole system. Its purpose is fair and democratic. However, we also believe that when parole is granted that the officers and court from which the prisoner was sentenced should be consulted and advised.

MISSING TRUCK IS FOUND BY F. B. I. AT GRAND CANYON

The U. S. Forest Service here announced that the missing pickup truck, driven by Charles Seales, Boca patrolman, was located Tuesday on the north rim of the Grand Canyon Seales, who is still missing, disappeared with the truck from his post on Saturday, October 12.

The FBI, which assumed direction of the search, believes Seales is in the Grand Canyon territory, having once worked there as a guide. He had frequently said he would return there when he was through with his seasonal job with the local forest service.

Since he left behind two pay checks, his clothing and had money coming from fellow employees and was carrying a large sum of money, it was at first believed he might have been the victim of foul play.

The car was on a rather sharp downgrade section of the highway and she was unable to explain just what occurred in the wild plunge.

Brought home by the Colfax ambulance, Mrs. Englehart was found to be suffering from multiple bruises and abrasions and two badly sprained ankles. Merrill was only injured slightly.

Parolee Is Held On Kidnapping Charge Tuesday

Woman Alleges Gun Used To Force Her Into Car for Trip

District Attorney Ward Sheldon was here yesterday preparing evidence against Walter A. Sales, 34, former Southern Pacific fireman, being held in the Nevada County jail on a charge of violating his parole, while officials investigate charges of kidnapping filed against him by Gene Giovannoni, Truckee businessman.

The charge was filed as the result of the alleged kidnapping of Giovannoni's wife, Mary, by Sales Monday night when Mrs. Giovannoni was said to have been forced, at the point of a gun, to accompany Sales on an automobile ride.

Two Months for Six

According to the story of Constable N. F. Dolley and Sheldon, as related by Mrs. Giovannoni, Sales, who was paroled last week from the county jail after serving less than 60 days of a 180-day sentence imposed by Justice of the Peace R. N. Little of Truckee upon conviction of threatening Mrs. Giovannoni with a pistol previously, returned to Truckee Sunday night.

At that time, the story goes, Sales forced Mrs. Giovannoni to accompany him from the S. P. roundhouse to town. They went to a local cafe. The bartender, Jerry Stacey, saw the gun sticking from Sales' belt and he and Mrs. Giovannoni urged him to give up his kidnapping desire and return home. Finally he agreed to this and left.

Displays Weapon

Monday evening, when Mrs. Giovannoni went to her mother's home for dinner, the officers were told, she was met again by Sales who demanded that she get into the car which he was driving. She asked him if he was armed and he showed her the automatic and again demanded that she accompany him. She got into the car and they drove toward Sacramento.

Somewhere between Glen Alder and Colfax, Sales admitted, according to Mrs. Giovannoni, that he was doing a "silly thing" and drew the gun from his belt and held it in his right hand, steering the car with the other hand. He started to pass a large truck and this required the use of both hands on the steering wheel. He dropped the pistol in the front seat between them, Mrs. Giovannoni said, and she snatched it up and threw it from the car.

Makes Escape

Sales, she told officers, then suddenly stopped the car and when he did, she leaped out and caught a ride to Auburn and State Patrolmen Lynn Lardner and John Stinton returned her to Truckee.

Mrs. Giovannoni leaped onto the running board of a second car following the truck and it was this driver who took her to Auburn.

Sales, according to Sheldon, denies he had a gun, although state patrolmen reported finding a .45 calibre automatc beside the highway where Mrs. Giovannoni said she threw it. The gun is being held as evidence.

Christmas Tree Laws To be Strictly Enforced Says State Forest Head

In an effort to prevent wholesale waste of thousands of unsold Christmas trees on retail lots in California this year as was experienced during the 1945 Christmas season, State Forester DeWitt Nelson said from his headquarters in Sacramento that public forestry officials, in cooperation with the California Highway Patrol and the State Department of Agriculture's border checking stations, will this year rigidly enforce existing state laws pertaining to the cutting and transporting of Christmas trees.

Nelson explained that the law requires all persons cutting or transporting trees, whether for commercial purposes or for home use, to have in possession at all times a notarized permit from the land owner from whose property the trees were cut indicating that the trees were obtained legally and with full permission of the land owner. This permit is necessary both for the individual actually cutting the trees and for those transporting the trees to market, whether cut from private or government-controlled lands, Nelson said, and unless truckers can produce a suitable permit showing legal right of possession loads will be detained or even confiscated at one of many checking stations to be established by the State Division of Forestry during November and December.

"Under present state laws," Nelson continued, "public forestry agencies can prevent illegally cut trees from reaching the retail markets and we intend to enforce these laws in order to protect the legitimate dealer and to prevent waste of young forest growth."

Nelson also warned persons cutting Christmas trees for commercial purposes that under Chapter 85, Statutes of 1945, recently passed by the legislature, they must register with the State Forester to perform cutting operations and if they do not they shall be prohibited from cutting forest products from forest lands. The registration fee is one dollar per year and remittance should be sent to the cashier, Room 301, Department of Natural Resources, State Office Building No. 1, Sacramento 14, California. On receipt of money, a certificate of registration including a registration number will be sent to each individual to be used when questioned by law enforcement officers.

The city of Petaluma, in Sonoma County, was incorporated April 12, 858.

Tahoe Letter

From SWANEE

Tahoe City, California.
October 20, 1946

Dear Tahoeites:

Another Sunday has rolled away and a lovely day it was. We had quite a bit of company drop in for brief visits, including our old friends Eric Druhn and Henry Berette of San Francisco, who drove up in the truck to take home some of Druhn's belongings. They, daughter Marie, husband Bill and little Bill were our dinner guests today.

Others who came by were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Galli of Tracy who visited their lakeshore summer home while here in the Sunnyside district. They generously brought us a beautiful big lug of the most luscious red tomatoes, which we so much appreciate. They left for home Sunday afternoon.

My old neighbors, Mrs. George Gates and daughter Betty stopped in for a few moments to say hello and goodbye and to introduce us to their guest, Miss Viola Hatley. The latter and her mother, Mrs. H. E. Hatley, and Neil Luton, all of Dos Palos, enjoyed the ride to Tahoe with Mrs. Gates and the party divided their time while here at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. George Tiffee of Tahoe City. Mr. Gates has been given permission by the CPA to finish the roof of their new house in town, and is hurrying to get it completed before the snow flies. Mrs. Gates declares she and Betty like their new home in the south very much and Betty especially likes her school teacher and playmates. She and her classmates recently received a real thrill when they were permitted to visit a large bakery in Dos Palos and spend an hour or more watching the baker make up a batch of bread and bake the loaves. She's positive now she's going to be a baker when she grows up.

Daughter Jackie and friend, Jeannette Franco, of Homewood dropped in on their way back from Grass Valley and Sacramento, and I'm looking forward to tomorrow night when Jeannette's mother, Mrs. Ida Stewlow of The Hut and I will be guests of our daughters at Homewood Hotel dining room. Jackie leaves on Monday night for San Francisco and Hollister where she will visit for several weeks. The girls also visited "Whitey" Odeski, formerly of Homewood, who is now a member of Uncle Sam's Army at Camp Beale, near Marysville. They cheered him up no end. He is due to depart for a new destination, unknown at the moment, within the next few days. Was thrilled when the girls brought me a beautiful armful of exquisite autumn leaves from Nevada City on their return.

Two Tahoeites having a grand vacation at present are Mr. and Mrs. William Bechdolt who are taking a long delayed and well deserved honeymoon, so to speak. On Wednesday night they were to be guests of the Walt Whitmans of Pittsburg, who had invited over to dinner Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynch and Dr. William Jones of that ity, the 16th being Bernie's birthday. Carl Bechdolt Sr. had a birthday on the 15th, and Bill's was on the 18th. Bill and Bernie took in the USC-UC game in San Francisco on Saturday last, will stop en route south to visit at beautiful Hotel Samarkand, the winter resort of the hospitable Dave Chambers' and on the Pasadena where the family will celebrate her dad's birthday. Before returning to Tahoe they may even venture as far south as Mexico on their vacationing honeymoon. Here is hoping they have gobs and gobs of fun.

It was like old times helping to celebrate the birthday of one of Tahoe's pioners, Carl Bechdolt, genial host at Tahoe Inn, who turned 60 on October 15. After enjoying cocktails in the lounge before dinner, the guests were escorted to the dining room where a lace-draped, lower adorned table was set for 16. Those who helped observe the day and share the Bechdolt's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Watson, Bud Jones, Ralph Baker, Henry Droste, Christine and Sharon Bechdolt, Mr. and Mrs. William Bechdolt, Arnold Luneman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson and Chester Langenstein. The latter brought along his banjo and entertained throughout the evening with songs and music. One of Carl's most cherished gifts was a geautiful ring embellished with the Elk's emblem, bestowed by members of his family. When guests departed after a marvelous buck dinner and evening of gaiety, they found their cars covered white with snow which fell for several hours but failed to remain long.

Latest news from son Jimmie, still in Germany but hoping to be moving back home ere long, informs me he has "dropped" to only 183 pounds now! Looks like his Uncle Sam is still feeding pretty well at that rate. He was joining up with the football squad which was forming for a bit of American sport. Fourteen men signed at that time but none of All-American calibre, he reports. He's brought a new camera and hopes the sun continues to shine for a few days so he may get some pictures to bring home. Weather has been dreary and sunless and mail was not arriving too regularly.

Tahoe is due to lose the services of a sincere and tireless worker who has served this district for the American Red Cross for 15 years. She is Justice of the Peace Evelyn Bliss who has tendered her resignation, and whose place will be filled by an equally conscientious citizen, Mrs. Charles Cross. Despite the press of duties through the years, Mrs. Bliss has secured for Tahoe through her personal efforts, numerous advantages, such as the Red Cross swimming instruction and other activities. Throughout the war years she took charge of the knitting of sweaters, socks and other warm accessories for the boys in service and in the making of kits and clothing for stricken Europeans. She herself knittde sweaters and aided in instructing those who desired to learn. Tahoe needs more citizens like Mrs. Bliss who gave so freely and generously of her time and effort, despite the duties which filled her days from dawn 'til dark. Let's pray that Tahoe will appreciate the selfless service given by this good citizen, and let's all get behind the new chairman, Mrs. Cross, and aid her in the tasks which lie ahead.

Was pleased and surprised last week to receive in the mail an invitation to the 50th wedding anniversary reception of ex-Tahoeites, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Porter Hevel of Flood Road, Auburn. The Hevels were long time residents of the Bittencourt Tract who sold their home some years ago to buy a small ranch near Auburn. Their many friends of this region send warmest wishes for continued health and happiness through many years to come. Hope in some way I may be able to attend that celebration on Sunday afternoon, October 27.

Friend Annie and daughter, Agnes and husband, Louie, arrived back safe and sound from their trip to Washington, via plane, on Saturday night at Sacramento. But it was not what could be called an uneventful trip. The flight north was perfect, with calm weather and brilliant moonlight. The return passage, however, was made under storm conditions with a 60-mile-an-hour wind blowing, rain and snow falling almost from the takeoff. For two weeks the weather there was perfect and their plane would have beat the storm home had not two other planes become lost in that vicinity, causing restrictions to be ordered for all flying craft until they were found. For an hour and a quarter their ship, with its 20 passengers, circled around and around in the "soup", likened by Agnes to one "putting their head in a paper bag." Queries to the stewardess revealed they knew the vicinity in which they flew but had to circle as they could not make an emergency landing. Later they dropped onto the field at Toledo, Oregon, where after a half hour wait the were permitted on continue, the lost planes having been located. The trio of visitors had a most enjoyable visit with their relatives in the north, and Mrs. Soll reported her father, Alfred B. Conrad, 83, despite his years, was the first man in on opening morning of deer season with a big forked horn, shot near his home, and Mrs. Soll's sister, Mrs. Minnie Vitcovitch, who lives nearby, was one of the first women in with a buck, her a 230 pound black tail shot near her Eatonville home. One "bachelor" who is mighty glad to see his wandering wife return is Henry Soll.

E. H. Pomin of Tahoe Park Sunday finally pegged his buck, a 3-and-2 pointer, above Timberland. He did more hiking this year and saw fewer bucks than he can remember, and was more than delighted to finally shoot one in his own neighborhood. A member of a ten-man group recently in Sardine Valley brought back the lone kill and the party saw only four bucks the entire day.

Leave you for the week and trust this finds you cheerful, well and prosperous.

As ever, Swanee

The trip was accomplished without mishap and took them to such places as Salt Lake, Chicago, Boston, Niagara Falls, New York and Washington, D. C., visiting Boge's relatives in the latter city. Johanson had car trouble on the way back and failed to arrive in Auburn in time for the county planning commission meeting Friday night.

Nevada County Voters Urged to Use Franchise At November 5 Election

"Every one of Nevada county's 9,950 registered voters has a responsibility to vote on Tuesday, November 5," A. C. Hardison of Santa Paula, president of California Taxpayers' association, says. At the June primary, only 6,396 pepole voted of the 8,907 who were registered. Data on number of people registered were furnished by R. N. McCormack, county clerk.

"In addition to careful consideration of the men and women who are running for public office and any local issues, the people have seventeen state ballot propositions to weigh," Hardison pointed out.

Of the 17 proposition, major interest centers on the three initiatives, he continued. No. 2 would permit greyhound racing in California. No. 3 would freeze into the constitution a minimum teacher salary of $2,400 per ear and increase school costs by about $100,000,000 a biennium. No. 11, the FEPC, would make it illegal for an employer to refuse to hire any person because of his race, religion or color and sets up a new government agency, vesting power to settle disputes in a commission which "shall not be bound by the common law or statutory rules of evidence."

Proposition No. 1 authorizes $100 million of state bonds for farm and home loans to veterans; No. 4 would expand such loans to the acquisition of any business, land, equipment, etc.

No. 5 creates a court of tax appeals. No. 6 proposes annual sessions of the legislature and annual state budgets. Nos. 7, 8, and 9 make technical changes in the school code. No. 10 permits the legislature to increase the governor's salary. No. 12 empowers the legislature to submit to the people amendments to or repeal of initiative laws. No. 13 simplifies accounting of state school funds. No. 14 clarifies the succession to the governorship. No. 15 validtes amendments to the alien land law. No. 16 repeals an unused poll tax provision. No. 17 changes the name of the railroad commission to the public utilities commission and requires senate confirmation of appointments thereto.

Varied Subterfuges Used to Bring Plants into State

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24 —(UP)— People pick the strangest things in which to carry plants and fruits into California, the state department of agriculture reveals.

For instance, inspectors at border quarantine stations seeking to keep infested plant material out of California reported:

A tourist of Spanish extraction did not understand the reason for the inspection and neglected to declare 20 cotton bolls picked up in Texas which he was carrying inside his guitar and from which five live weevils were taken.

The examinations are pretty thorough, not because the inspectors believe people wilfully are trying to bring infected pants in, but because he overlook small lots on don't understand the purpose of the examination.

Another inspector reported that a lady who had visited in Louisiana was sure no harm uld come from the few little bolls of cotton she carried in her hat box and failed to declare."

Another forgetful tourist declared "no fruit" a minute before the inspector uncovered a bushel basket of apples, all but three of which were infested with apple maggot."

Cabin Near Tahoe Inn Partially Damaged By Fire Saturday Night

TAHOE CITY— A large crowd gathered Saturday night to watch the fire which partially destroyed a cabin at the rear of Tahoe Inn. Fred White, public campground ranger, responded with the 250 gallon pumper truck and soon had the fire well under control. The Tahoe fire department, led by Chief Harry Johanson, was also on the scene to lend their aid.

Cause of the fire was believed to have been the building of a fire in a stove by an unknown man who was seen running from the building after the fire broke out. He is believed to have entered the cabin, closed for the winter, with the intention of spending the night. The storm hood had been placed on the chimney top and when the fire was lit, it is believed the flue and chimney flamed, setting the roof on fire. Damage was estimated as between $300 and $400, covered by insurance. Absence of any wind prevented danger to the Inn. Prompt action was possible because of the convenient hoses provided by Carl Bechdolt, Sr., the owner, as protection for his property.

Tahoe City's fire record has been commendable, as this was only the second fire turned in since the formation of the fire district in 1942, according to Clarence Vernon, secretary-treasurer of the fire department

Al Henry Named Chief by Tahoe Fire Fighters

TAHOE CITY— Members of the Tahoe Volunteer Fire Department met on Thursday night last in community hall. Annual election of officers found Al Henry replacing Harry Johanson as fire chief and William Bosen was elected assistant fire chief. Clarence Vernon has performed his task of secretary treasurer so efficiently that he was unanimously reelected to the post installation of officers will be in the hall on November 7 at which time the new chief will take over.

The local group will undertake to invite all the men in town to join the department as honorary members. They will be required to take the fire drills with regular members but will not be called upon to attend fires except in emergencies. The purpose of enlisting them is to have a waiting list from which men can be called when one of the regulars drop out.

It is expected, now that members are not so busy with the summer rush, that drills will be held more regularly.

Dr. George Hinkle of University of California spent the weekend with his wife at their Tahoe home.

Tahoe-Sierra President Leads Forum on Project To Lower Level of Lake

TAHOE CITY— Fifty persons, resort owners and government representatives, met last Thursday afternoon in Tahoe City's community hall to discuss proposed changes in the maximum level of the lake. Harry Comstock, president of Tahoe-Sierra Association, presided.

Col. A. M. Barton of Sacramento, chief engineer of the state reclamation board, gave a compelte resume of Tahoe's water controversy. Arthur Showman of the district engineer's office in Sacramento gave detailed explanation of the engineer's survey and report, which remains on a confidential status until released by Washington and answered questions from the floor.

Briefly, the government aims to maintain the present rim of the lake at 6223 with high water level set at 6228 instead of the present 6229.1. Proposed installation of a new permanent concrete wier the entire width of the dam and deppening of the channel approach and exit will permit actual control of water by the gates, impossible now according to the present method of operation. The estimates are made on levels prevailing over the past forty years.

The project, currently calculated to cost $3,250,000, includes in addition to the work at Tahoe, a Prosser Creek reservoir, diversion dam and conduits with proposed capacity of 134,000 acre feet. Operation by the new plan would eliminate danger of future flood damage, affording maximum outflow of 2,000 second feet when needed. Annual damage in the past is estimated at $110,000 which the 6228 foot maximum level would almost eliminate.

A request will be made for a time extension from November 11 to January 15 of the chief engineer in Sacramento in which to file comments. The Tahoe-Sierra Association, inviting public participation, will make a thorough study of the water course over the past forty years and of government charts before reporting.

California's and Nevada's conference committees will meet soon to devise a workable solution satisfactory to all and the attorney generals of both states will be asked to render legal opinions as to whether riparian rights of property owners are endangered through natural rim replacement by a concrete one. A friendly test suit may be filed in federal court to determine the issue.

State Engineers Alfred Merritt, Hugh Shamberger, Edmund Muth, George Devore, Jack Franklin and Charles Merrill, all of Reno, represented Nevada's interests with Randolph Dewante of Sacramento furnishing recorded information. The proposition is receiving much favorable consideration here.

California's water conference committee is comprised of Henry Droste, Henry Lyons and Charles Young while Nevada's committee includes George Devore, Charles Merrill and Senator Andy Haight.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dewhurst of Berkeley were weekend guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Soll of Tahoe Pines.

Charlie Swanson of Sunnyside returned on Sunday after a hunting trip in Nevada. He was accompanied by Jim Wilson, Willie Arnhold and Joe Carter of Reno. Swanson was the only man to get a buck.

Lillian Vernon of the Bittencourt Tract rites homes to her folks at Tahoe that she is well pleased with her now job as a photo printer in Oakland. She is residing in Piedmont and in the evenings attends commercial art classes. She took her new post on September 1 but hopes to enjoy a monthly weekend with her family at the lake.

Mrs. Chester Langenstein of Carnelian Bay s enjoying a visit in Canada, the place of her birth, with her two brothers, Frank and George Tacey who live at Vancouver. It is her first trip home in almost ten years. She flew back on October 6th and plans to return home via plane around November 6.

Miss Shirley Ables and her fiance, Ray Prusso, leave Sunday for Long Beach. They plan to pick up Miss Bette Wheat, who will accompany them south and the girls will visit at the home of Shirley's grandmother, Mrs. Iva Harris of Los Angeles, until the wedding in November.

Joyce Bissett of the 7th grade at Tahoe Lake School has transferred to El Dorado county schools, her parents, the Earl Reinhardts, having moved from Tahoe for the winter.

Proposition 3 will relieve the teacher famine in California by guaranteeing public school teachers a minimum salary of $2400 a year. Local taxes will not be increased by this measure. State funds are available for this purpose.

Two hundred California organizations, including the following, urge you to vote "YES" on 3—Republican and Democratic Parties, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans, AFL, CIO, Native Daughters and Native Sons, and P-TA.

And remember—when you vote "Yes" on 3, be sure to vote "No" on 13, which would further reduce present inadequate school appropriations.

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRANCES COUILLARD

Well, the Donner Community Club had their first social function last Friday evening. Sixty guests attended and it was a bang-up affair. It was held at Ice Lakes and the occasion was a box social. Frank Martinez was the auctioneer and a right sizeable sum was raised. The business meeting brought forth the community's desire for the new school that is contemplated and we can see no let up in the enthusiasm for the project. Next meeting will be held at the V. Coffee Shop on the first of November. We are proud of the spirit that motivates this new organization and as each meeting brings forth more of the members of this district, we can see that a need for such a club was rightfully thought of.

Sunday afternoon Herb and Lena Frederick had an ope house for the initiation of their new building. It is a fine structure and in spite of restrictions, high costs and lack of material these enterprising mountain folk were but a few weeks late on their original deadline. A buffet dinner was served (food was delicious) and while the champagne was not cracked over the new open door—well, there was champagne! We were surprised to see Betty and Haven (Jorgy) Jorgensen with their new infant at the party. Betty and Jorgy came all the way from the Echo Chalet on Highway 50 to congratulate their old friends.

So another new addition for our booming community!

I took Mrs. Sadie Noble to Los Angeles with me on my recent trip. Sadie was the guest of Helen and Charlie Collins, old Truckeeites. Helen wanted to be remembered to all her old Truckee friends and got so homesick when we left her that the tears flowed freely. Says she will be up next spring. Helen is in the real estate business in Los Angeles in an office at 92nd and Vermont and is prospering, says Helen.

And the Walsh's at Cisco Grove had another wing-ding! Seems like the Walsh's and all their friends got married about the same time so, consequently, they all had anniversaries at the same time. The table was sumptious and the cake was beautiful—and it was all prepared by Al Klophorn who, we understand, is going to open a new bakery in Truckee pretty soon. Guests were Dolly and Lou Defour, Ida and George Ryer, Irene and Carl Morath (Sacramento), Dan and Helen Sheehan (Oakland), Alice and Jack Walsh, Sadie Nobles, Les Peters, Eddie Lee Hazelwood (whose birthday was being celebrated too), Harry Pierson, and Art and Frances Couillard. That George Ryer was a card—never a dull moment. He took occasion to initiate everyone at the party into an organization which he nightmared up called the Pigs' Club. For further details, you had better contact the Walshs—if they can tell you about it without the tears coming to their eyes. Harry Roemer was also invited and his empty chair put a little crimp into the party, but Harry, in his excitement over the party, poked his forefinger into the fast-moving blades of an electric fan. We felt badly, but even Harry admits that it was a foolish thing to do.

Donner Summit Lodge is like the big thermometer that used to hang in the City Plaza whose mercury recorded the gains made in War Chest drives, Bond drives and so on. Everytime you look at it you can see the mercury soaring. The roof is on and the painters are staring shortly. We are already beginning to look forward to a grand opening with all the trimmings. Wonde who will have it first, Herstle Jones or Donner Lodge? Talking about all the trimmings, understand that Bud and Betty Horak are going to have have kind of a pre-opening party at Hallowe'en time.

Now that the "red hats" have gone down the hill, we thoughtfully sit and twiddle our fingers wondering what is coming next.

MAIN STREET MANHATTAN

By CARL HELM

NEW YORK—It's a town in which a man could (and sometimes does) walk up the main drag in a pair of purple pajamas without causing much of a stir. Some people would turn around, others would speculate on "what's the angle?"—but the white-gloved cops wouldn't even give him a tumble.

It's all in the New Yorkish "mind-your-own-business" tradition, increasingly accentuated in these United Nations days by the native garbs of Hindus and Moslems, Turks and Ukrainians—to note but a few—joining in the Broadway and Fifth Ave. parade in this capital of the world.

Swarthy, big-earringed women in scarlet saris which swathe them from head to heel; Chinese beauties in skin-tight silk gowns slashed up the side; fiercely-bearded officers in jeweled turbans, pink-cheeked soldiers in tartan kilts—they sight-see and shop without causing a ripple.

This "mind-your-own-business" fetish sometimes causes you to wonder, though, whether the man you see slumped in a doorway is placidly sleeping, or drunk, or sick unto death, without stopping to find out . .

New theatrical season's on, and you might want to hear Victor Herbert's fine old songs sung in the new operetta, "Gypsy Lady," though it's pretty dull and pretentious.

FOR VETERANS' WELFARE

VOTE "YES" ON PROPOSITION 2!

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American Veterans urge you to vote "YES" on Proposition 2 on the November ballot.

This measure will legalize greyhound racing in California — under strict State supervision — and turn over 4 per cent of all track wagers to a Veterans' Fund administered by the State Department of Veterans' Affairs.

It will perform a distinct service for California veterans. It will guarantee ADEQUATE FINANCING of State-sponsored welfare and rehabilitation activities, including support of the Veterans' Home at Yountville. It will relieve the taxpayer of the burden of paying for these services; greyhound racing will pay the bill instead.

California veterans ask you to support them in this campaign.

Let's Carry Through - Vote "YES" on 2!

MY PLACE in the SUN

by DOUG BARRETT

The advent of the annual Hallowe'en Dance on November 2, put on by Truckee's intrepid volunteer firemen serves to remind us of the splendid work being done by these men. Because of my business, which fits in with a natural curiosity, I miss few fires and am a more or less active spectator when the boys go into action. Frequently, during the past few months, numerous small fires have broken out in places where—if allowed to gain headway—they could do countless damage to Truckee. The promptness and efficiency of the department, however, has minimized this great potential damage to almost nil. Often, the fire truck and fighters are on the scene before the alarm has ceased to sound, with the situation well in hand. Once a year, around Hallowe'en, the boys stage a gala ball for the benefit of the department and the entertainment of the folks of the community. It has always been a gala affair, providing excellent music and lots of fun for all. Treat yourself and help the flame squelchers by attending their dance Saturday evening, November 2.

AROUND TOWN: Early morning beauty in Truckee are the frost patterns on the roofs and the smoke rising from the SP locomotives.... the little woman is gradually adding to her Canadian Club with Bea Perkins, Irene Englehart, Mrs. Ray Sevens and John Brown all from the Dominion....Ione and Tony Illardi going into Jerry Zunino's bootery....Jack Blattler tells me that hole in his jaunty chapeau was put there by a bullet....he wasn't under it then, though....John Cabona really rides like a cavalryman....Teen-Agers Lois Farrar and Alice Waters in reporting their club activities....Jim Owens is certainly a proud father—and rightfully, they're darned nice girls....A new light shines in the eyes of Frank Kinne (and a host of other local lads) with the approach of duck season....Don't forget the Outing Club wiener roast at Hilltop Monday night.

Better Service in Truckee Sheriff Aspirant's Pledge

Richard (Dick) Hoskins of Grass Valley was here this week winding up his campaign for the general election of November 5th when he aspires to be named by the voters of Nevada County as sheriff.

Hoskins is widely and favorably known throughout the county. He was a candidate for the same post he now seeks four years ago and made many friends during his frequent visits to the eastern section of the county.

The candidate has pledged himself to bettering conditions in this section by providing an adequate jail and maintaining a capable deputy to assist in law enforcement problems.

"I do not believe that the taxpayers and residents of Truckee have had the full benefits of the sheriff's office," Hoskins declared. "I shall make it my duty to see to it that this condition is corrected. It can be done without sacrificing any of the benefits now enjoyed by the balance of the county. I plan to put the sheriff's office on a businesslike, efficient basis and keep it there, making the books and accounts open at all times for public inspection."

The candidate is a native of Nevada County and attended the Grass Valley schools and has gained extensive business training through affiliation with the Diamond Match Company and as manager of his own service station business. He is a home owner and family man and has been active in civic, fraternal and athletic affairs.

Grass Valley Accountant Announces Office Move

Hugh Brown, Grass Valley accountant, who comes to Truckee each month to audit and attend local books, announces that he has moved to 104 North Auburn Street in Grass Valley. He will continue trips to Truckee each month and was here yesterday on business.

Auburn Family Seeking Pet Lost Near Donner

The Ronald Mangseth family of Auburn are seeking their pet dog, Tiny, who was lost while Mangseth was on a hunting trip between Donner Lake and Donner Summit a week ago. The little dog was frightened when a rifle was discharged and ran away. Tracks indicated she reached the road where the hunters had left the car but the trail was soon lost.

The five-year-old girl of the Mangseths is heartbroken over the loss and if anyone has any information regarding Tiny, who is described in a classified ad in this paper, they are asked to contact the Auburn family.
